

EXPLORE. MASTER. CELEBRATE. - THE HARP

NAJA MOHORIČ

Slovenian harpist Naja Mohorič is internationally recognized for her talent, intelligence, dedication, and true enthusiasm for her profession.

Perform solo concerts and telling musical stories through her music is her great passion – her projects saw the light at Festivals Lent, Glasbena Mladina Slovenije, Imago Sloveniae, Festival Ljubljana (Slovenia), JazzMI (Italy), Rio de Janeiro Harp Festival (Brazil). Naja collaborates often with various orchestras at home and abroad (SNG Opera and Ballet Orchestra Ljubljana, Orchestra BrianzaClassica, NOVA Philharmonic, among others) and was furthered soloist in the Harp Concerto op.25 by Alberto Ginastera with the Slovenian Philharmonic Orchestra under the baton of Samuel Burstin in January 2022. Chamber music enthusiast, Mohorič is the part of duo EUNOIA (with flutist Barbara Spital), and the duo SONABILIS (with violinist Maja Zupin). To enrich harp repertoire, Naja Mohoric passionately works with composers. P. Coggiola, T. Slakan, and G. Muženič dedicated her their composition.

Naja Mohorič began her musical education at the Fran Korun School of Music in Koželjski Velenje. She holds Bachelor's Degree (BMus) from the Civica Scuola di Musica Claudio Abbado, Milan, and a Master of Music Degree (MMus) with Honors from the Ljubljana Academy of Music. Naja has studied with professors Dalibor Bernatovič, Mojca Zlobko Vajgl and Dr. Irina Zingg. International Summer HarpMasters Academy has played a vital role in her professional and personal establishment, where the harpist polished her skills with world-renowned harpists. Naja is the prizewinner of several international harp competitions in Slovenia, Italy, and Serbia.

Naja Mohorič is the professor of harp at the Fran Korun Koželjski Velenje Music School and the Nazarje Music School. Dedicated professional, Naja Mohoric serves the international harp community – she is the Executive Director of the HarpMasters Academy & Festival and the co-president of the Slovenian Harp Association.