

EXPLORE. MASTER. CELEBRATE. - THE HARP

MILDA AGAZARIAN

One of the foremost teachers, performers, and public figures in the world of music in Russia, an Eminent Culture Worker of Russia Milda Agazarian is the Professor of Harp at the Russian Music Academy and the Moscow Special Gnessin School and College.

Milda Agazarian is a founding member and President of the Association of Russian Harp Teachers International; Founder and the Artistic Director of the annual Moscow International Harp Festival and Open Youth Mark Rubin Harp Competition. She has served on the juries of numerous national and international harp competitions and 36 of her students have won prizes at international harp contests in Russia, France, the USA, Bulgaria, Wales, Serbia, Hungary, and Spain.

Prof. Agazarian has presented master classes in Japan, Great Britain, France, Hungary, and Switzerland and was an Honorable Guest of the VI USA International Harp Competition in Bloomington. Since 2006 Milda Agazarian is the Professor-in Residence of the International Summer Harp Masters Academy and since 2009 is the Visiting Professor of The Royal Academy of Music in London. Professor Agazarian has served as a Member of the Board of Directors of the World Harp Congress and is the Founder and Artistic Director of The Ksenia Erdely International Harp Competition.

Being a student and successor of legendary Russian harpists and pedagogues Mark Rubin, Ksenia Erdely, and Vera Dulova, professor Agazarian preserves, continues, and develops traditions of the famous Russian Harp School.